

Georgia School for Innovation and the Classics
Annual Conflict of Interest Disclosure

The Georgia School for Innovation and the Classics (GSIC) requires Board Members and Key Personnel, as these terms are defined in the Board's Conflict of Interest Policy, to complete annual Conflict of Interest Disclosures during their service to the school. This Annual COI Disclosure is to be completed and returned to the school by September 30 of each year

A conflict of interest occurs when your personal interests interfere, or appear to interfere, in any way, with the interests of GSIC. A conflict of interest can arise either when you have interests that may make it difficult for you to fully perform your obligations or when you otherwise take action for your direct or indirect benefit, or the direct or indirect benefit of someone else that is inconsistent with GSIC's interests. Conflicts of interest also arise when you, or a member of your family, receive improper personal benefits as a result of your position at GSIC. You have an obligation to disclose any fact, relationship or transaction that could reasonably be viewed as a potential conflict of interest. Please also consult with Section 14.3 of the GSIC Bylaws.
